OPERATIONS

Uncertainty in the Indian economy contributed to a drop in your Company's revenues in the year 2012-13. The market sentiment was affected due to rise in the foreign exchange rate, inflation and high interest rates. The rise in crude oil prices also contributed to this uncertainty in India.

The net revenue of your Company for the year ended review was 5,488 million against Rs.6,666 million of last year.

The revenue of the Compression Segment was Rs. 4,484 million as against Rs.5,781 million in 2011-12.

The Compression Segment was affected mainly due to very low investments in the Oil and Gas Sector.

Capital expenditure for expansion/up-gradation of refineries was also very low and this affected our business of Refrigeration and Gas Compression Systems.

The CNG segment did not grow as anticipated due to various infrastructural and gas availability issues.

Revenue of the Transmission segment was Rs. 1,005 million as against Rs. 885 million of the last year.

In spite of the manufacturing sector not growing in the last year, your Company has generally maintained its profitability in the year.

This was the result of the many cost reduction measures undertaken by your company. This included value engineering products, re-engineering of our processes, improving efficiencies and reducing throughput time.

Your Company launched a WoW (War on Waste) initiative last year and employees consciously contributed to eliminating/ reducing all kinds of waste.

ENERGY CONSERVATION

In spite of substantial rise in power tariff and Oil prices, we have been able to contain our costs due to various energy conservation projects that we undertook last year.

Our efforts in energy conservation were recognised by the Institute of Engineers Pune, Local Centre, who awarded us with DSK Energy Award for Outstanding Contribution in Energy Sector.

DIVIDEND

The Board of Directors have recommended a dividend of Rs. 12/- (120%) per equity share for the year ended March 31, 2013. In the last year a similar dividend of Rs. 12/- (120%) per equity share was paid.

FIXED DEPOSIT

As of March 31, 2013 there are no Fixed Deposits outstanding nor unclaimed.

PROSPECTS

The manufacturing sector witnessed a decline in the last couple of years. There are indications that the business sentiment is improving and your Company is meticulously keeping track of the developments. While this will definitely help in order booking, it will help in your company's revenues from 2014-15 onwards.

Revenues of the Transmission products have grown by 20% over the last year with a marked improvement in profitability. We expect this Division to maintain its focus on profitability this year too.

Your company has taken up exports of Hydrocarbon Refrigeration and Compression Systems as a key growth area and in this context, I am glad to inform you that your company has now been approved by many Oil & Gas Companies in the Middle-East and South-East Asia as a supplier of these systems. These will help in growing revenues in the coming years.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSIONS AND ANALYSIS

Industry Overview

The Indian economy is passing through a challenging phase. Domestic as well as global factors have adversely impacted GDP growth and has fallen to the decades lowest level. Growth in Index of Industrial Production (IIP) was below 1% during FY'13 as compared to 6.8% during FY'11. Capital goods sector has shown faster deceleration.

Your Company serves various sectors viz. Oil and Gas, Infrastructure, Cement, Steel and Power, Food and Beverage and Railways. Regulatory challenges coupled with lack of new project clearances have adversely impacted demand levels.

Segment Analysis

Your Company has two business segments – Compression Products and Transmission Products.

1. Compression Products:

Your Company offers a wide range of products which include – Air, Gas and Refrigeration Compressors, Packages and Systems.

a. Performance: During the year revenue for the Compression Product Segment was Rs 4,484 Mn. (Previous Year Rs 5,781 Mn). These products primarily serve the Oil and Gas and Infrastructure industries. During the period FY'09 through FY'11 there were significant investments in these sectors for both expansions as well as modernization. However over the last couple of years lower investments as well as regulatory challenges have affected the sales of the company this year. In spite of inflationary pressures, your Company has managed to contain material cost through various cost reduction programmes. To transform the operations with Manufacturing Excellence as a goal, your Company has taken positive steps to implement these concepts and an empowered team has been constituted to champion this initiative across the organization. Looking at the changing technology trends, your Company is also focused on developing products for the future. Special efforts are being made to engage the best talent for in-house product development. Your Company continues to be the preferred choice of customers. The Customer Satisfaction Survey conducted by Nielsen Ltd. shows significant improvement in the Customer Satisfaction Index.

b. Opportunities, Threats and Concerns: Your Company aims at strengthening its market position by widening its range of product offerings. Although the current economic environment is subdued the opportunities, in the coming years are promising. Projects announced by the companies in the Oil and Gas sector are likely to materialize over next three years. The government is committed to support infrastructure development for the cold chain in India. This will certainly offer opportunities for growth in the domestic market. Your Company is also focused on developing export business in the Middle East and South East Asia region. Your Company has been approved by many international consulting and contracting companies and this will help us in garnering business in the coming years. Inflationary pressures and the weak Rupee will pose a challenge of cost management.

Compression is a highly specialized field and talent availability – especially in the design and technology development is very critical.

2. Transmission Products:

Your Company offers wide range of product which include – Railway Traction Gears, Wind Turbine Gearbox, Industrial Gearbox and Specialized Products.

a. Performance: During the year revenue for the Transmission Product Segment was Rs 1,005 Mn. (Previous Year Rs 885 Mn). With the modernization plan being implemented by Indian Railways, your Company has improved its sales performance this year. This has off-set lower sales for the wind turbine gear box. Wind turbine gearbox demand was affected by changes in the government policies and challenges of basic infrastructure. Over the last two years your Company has invested in modernising its plant and this has helped in improving the productivity and quality. Your Company took up cost reduction programme which improved the margins. Your Company is implementing a programme to achieve its goal of Manufacturing Excellence in operations. A dedicated cross functional team is in place to champion this initiative.

- b. Opportunities, Threats and Concerns: Your Company will endeavour to consolidate its market position in Railway and Wind Segment. Industrial Gearbox market offers excellent opportunities for growth. Over the years your Company has developed capability to design, manufacture and sell customized industrial gearboxes and is now in the process of cementing our presence in this market. Cost continues to be under pressure with competition from both domestic and international players. There is still uncertainty on the future demand pattern of the wind turbine market. Transmission Products segment also faces a stiff challenge in recruitment of trained engineering and manufacturing manpower.

Outlook

The government during the recent budget, has announced some policy measures to mobilize funds in the infrastructure investment. The Cabinet Committee on Investment has been set up and decisions have been taken in respect of a number of gas, power and coal projects. The Government is expected to announce a policy to encourage exploration and exploitation of shale gas. However in short term, the outlook is challenging. Focus on excellent customer service and cost management will continue to be of prime importance for your Company to tide over these difficult times.

Internal Control Systems and Their Adequacy

Your Company has adequate internal control systems to ensure maintenance of proper accounting records, their accuracy and Accounting Standards, safeguarding of Company's assets and assessing its risk for insurance coverage.
